

Summer International Education Program: History and Culture of Oaxaca, Mexico

<http://studyabroad.utsa.edu/?go=FacLed>

Immerse yourself in the history, culture, and language of Mexico at the Universidad Autónoma de Benito Juárez de Oaxaca, (UABJO—the state university) in Oaxaca, Mexico.

Oaxaca is one of the most diverse states in Mexico and Oaxaca City offers a vibrant combination of art, food, and universities. NatGeo listed it as #5 of its top 20 places to visit! <https://www.nationalgeographic.com/travel/features/best-trips-destinations-2018/#ciudad-ixtepec-oaxaca-mexico>

Travel with your professors to precolonial and colonial sites, museums, markets, artisan cooperatives, and unique natural areas.

For more info or questions contact:

Dr. Catherine Nolan-Ferrell

catherine.ferrell@utsa.edu

Summer 2018: June 18-July 16

MAKE PROGRESS ON YOUR DEGREE PLAN WITH THIS SIX CREDIT PROGRAM!!

No previous knowledge of Spanish required

Three credits of Spanish Language (Students will be placed in a class based upon written and oral evaluation of their Spanish level)

Three credits interdisciplinary course, Indigenous Peoples and the State, taught in English (meets degree requirements in Anthropology, History, Modern Languages and Literature, Political Science/Global Affairs, and in COEHD, Mexican American Studies)

Homestay! Live with families who are experienced in sharing their love of Oaxaca with international students.

Excursions: Oaxaca City Tour, Markets, Artisan Cooperatives, Art Museums
Pre Colombian Ruins: Monte Alban, Mitla
Colonial Sites, Hierva del Agua Natural Area, Tule Tree (largest tree in North America)

All Inclusive Estimated Cost: $4,198 covers:

- Tuition
- Room and board
- Excursions and special events
- Transportation to/from Mexico and in country

Students are eligible for a $1000.00 Alvarez scholarship

Information Sessions:

Monday, January 29, 4:30-5:30, MH 4.02.40 or Thursday, February 1, 4:30-5:30, MH 4.02.40 or Monday, February 5, 4:30-5:30, MH 4.02.40